

PATRICK A. SASSER

107 Gipson St., Columbia, MO 65202 • 573.424.0520 • patricksasser@hotmail.com • www.patricksasser.com

EXPERIENCE

Digital Media Instructor, Columbia Area Career Center, June 2007 to Present

- Managed a classroom, designed curriculum, created lesson plans, and instructed high school students in Graphic Design and Desktop Publishing and Introduction to Digital Media.

Adult Education Instructor, Columbia Area Career Center, Columbia, MO, May 2006 to Present

- Instructed adults in various software packages, including Adobe Dreamweaver, Flash, Photoshop, and the Microsoft Office Package.

Free Lance Website Designer, Columbia, MO, August 2002 to present

- www.908paryer.com, www.awakentheday.com, www.bottecilissouthcongress.com, www.columbiacwm.org, www.customdesignedprintwear.com, www.elmoreconsulting.com, www.forumgroup.com, www.moassp.org, www.patricksasser.com, www.shopatgirlboutique.com, www.smsg.org, www.thecrossingchurch.com, and www.xilitla.org

Java Programmer, Shelter Insurance, Columbia, MO, May 2006 to June 2007

- Worked in a team environment to set up an entire online experience for customers to inquire on insurance policies and to make policy changes.

Multimedia Design Internship, Owens Library, Maryville, MO, January 2006 to April 2006

- Projects created: <http://www.nwmissouri.edu/library/courses/research/assignmentcalc/> and <http://www.nwmissouri.edu/library/courses/freshman/timemgmt/spendingtime.htm>

Web Team, University Relations, Maryville, MO, August 2003 to April 2006

- Worked on the Northwest Missouri State University website, updating various pages and creating various sites under the Northwest template.

DVD Editor, Tower Yearbook, Maryville, MO, August 2004 to April 2006

- Created and oversaw the creation of different video packages, under a deadline, using a variety of software and combined them into a DVD that went into the Northwest Yearbook. These yearbooks were then distributed to all students.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science Degree in Interactive Digital Media with a New Media Focus, Northwest Missouri State University, Maryville, MO, April 2006, 3.88/4.00 GPA

- Interactive Digital Media is an interdisciplinary degree with an integrated curriculum from the departments of Computer Science, Mass Communication, and Art.

COMPUTER SKILLS

- Adobe Premiere, After Effects, Illustrator, Photoshop, InDesign, Flash, and Dreamweaver
- Microsoft Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Access, and Publisher
- DVD Studio Pro
- Podcasting
- Final Cut Pro
- Digital Camera, Video Camcorder, and Scanner
- Expert in HTML, CSS, PHP, JavaScript, and ActionScript
- Experienced in VBA, Java, XML, and ASP
- Extensive experience on both Macintosh and Windows platforms

ACTIVITIES AND HONORS

- INS 21 – Property and Liability Insurance Principles
- Varsity Letter Collegiate Track and Field 2003-2005
- MIAA Academic Commissioner's Honor Roll for Track and Field 2005
- President, Advertising Club 2005-2006
- Student Leader with the Navigators, a Christian campus group, 2004-2006
- President's Honor Roll Fall 2003 and Fall 2004
- Academic Honor Roll Spring 2004, Spring 2005 to Fall 2006
- Certified Peer Educator
 - Demonstrated outstanding student leadership and mastered the basic skills needed to be considered a peer educator.
- A+ Scholarship Recipient 2003-2005
 - Received for scholastic achievement, high attendance, good citizenship, and completion of unpaid tutoring.